

Japan Business Series
Japanese Management Style

Keynote Speaker

Takashi Asano
Vice President
JMA Consultants Inc

株式会社日本能率協会コンサルティング

Mr Asano is Vice President of Japan's oldest management consulting firm, Japan Management Association Consultants Inc (JMAC).

He started work as a management consultant with JMAC in 1983 and has since provided consulting services globally in fields such as plant management, kaizen, just-in-time (JIT), global management and global strategy.

In 1999, he established and became Director of a joint venture consulting company between the Ford Motor Company and JMAC. He also was President of JMAC America from 2000-2005, and is now on the JMAC Tokyo Board of Directors.

JMAC was established in 1942, within the Japan Management Association (a non-profit organization), as a government support structure aimed at the promotion of managerial efficiency within Japanese industry.

5:45-8:00pm
Wednesday, 31 October, 2007

Gil Langley Room
Sir Donald Bradman Stand, Adelaide Oval
(Parking at Southern Entrance)

JABC MEMBERS: FREE
NON-MEMBERS: $15
BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL

PROGRAM

17:45	Arrival
18:15	Introduction
18:20	Guest Speaker Yoji Yagi, Managing Director, Encounter SA ● Leadership & Work Ethic ● Subtleties of Japanese Business
18:35	Questions & Discussion
18:45	Introduction
18:50	Keynote Speaker Takashi Asano, Vice President, JMAC ● Japanese System of Management ● Japanese Business Culture
19:20	Questions & Discussion
19:30	Networking
20:00	Close

www.jabc.com.au

RSVP: Friday, 26 October, 2007

Contact: Ben Sparrow

Tel: 0400-565-373

E-mail: info@jabc.com.au

Sponsored by:

creating opportunity

Government of South Australia
Department of Trade and Economic Development